257 acres in Jackson County, TX one hour southwest of Houston is your getaway to enjoy the country. Located 4 miles south of Edna on the Lavaca river, at the intersection of FM 1822 and CR 308. With 120 acres of cropland currently planted in corn, there is some income as well as the ag exemption of property taxes. The balance of the acreage is heavily wooded and full of wildlife including deer and hogs. There is a pond stocked with fish. The Lavaca River is a special place to enjoy the peace and quiet, with fishing and hunting as well. If you are looking for a homesite in the country, or just run a few cows, or simply enjoy, this is it.
